APPLICATION ASSISTANCE AND INFORMATION STATEMENT
NOTICE TO ALL APPLICANTS
OPTIONS FOR APPLICANTS WITH DISABILITIES OR HANDICAPS

This property is managed by Coughlin Management Company. Coughlin Management Company and Oyster Bay Urban Renewal, Inc. do not discriminate against applicants and tenants on the basis of their race, color, sex, age, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, familial status, disability, gender expression, gender identity, or genetic information. We also have specific obligations which relate solely to people with disabilities or handicaps. A disability or handicap is a physical or mental impairment that limits a major life activity as defined in section 223 of the Social Security Act.

Please be advised that we have a legal obligation to make changes in policies and procedures (“reasonable accommodations”) and structural alterations (“physical modifications”) if it will enable an otherwise eligible applicant or tenant with a disability an equal opportunity to access and enjoy the housing program. We do not have to make a reasonable accommodation or physical modification if the accommodation or modification costs too much money and is too difficult for us to do (poses “an undue financial and administrative burden”) or requires us to ignore or change a basic component of our housing program (a “fundamental alteration” in the housing program).

Examples of reasonable accommodations and structural modifications include:

- Making an alteration to a unit, such as installing grab bars.
- Allowing a family to have a dog to assist a family member who needs the animal as a direct result of his/her disability in a development where dogs are not usually permitted;
- Making large type documents, placing documents on tape, and making a reader available to an applicant with a vision impairment during the application process, or tenant during the recertification process;

Please note that our obligation to provide a reasonable accommodation and physical modification does not require us to waive basic lease requirements for applicants or tenants with disabilities. An applicant or tenant family member with a disability must still be able to meet the essential obligations of tenancy (pay rent, care for their apartment, report required information to the manager, avoid disturbing their neighbors, etc.) with or without a reasonable accommodation or physical modification. If you or a member of your family has a disability or handicap and think you need a reasonable accommodation or structural modification, you may request it at any time in the application process or after admission. This is up to you.

RENTAL APPLICATION

Instructions for Head of Household

1. Please print all sections in ink. Do not leave any sections blank, even those which do not apply to you. For instance, if a section asks for a driver's license and you do not have a driver's license, you may enter "none" or N/A (not applicable). If you need to make a correction, draw one line through the incorrect information, then print the correct information above and initial the change.
2. As head of household, you will complete this application form. Each additional adult who will live in the apartment must sign the application.
3. It is important that all information on this form be complete and correct. False, incomplete, or misleading information will cause your household's application to be rejected.
4. As long as your application is on file with us, it is your responsibility to contact us whenever your address, telephone number, income situation, or family size changes. If you do not notify us of changes to the above listed information you will be removed from the list.
5. After we accept your application, we will make a preliminary determination of eligibility. If your household appears to be eligible for housing, your application will be placed on a waiting list, but this does not guarantee that your household will be offered an apartment. If later processing establishes that your household is not actually eligible or not actually qualified for housing, your application will be rejected. We will process your application according to our standard procedures.

Warning: Section 1001 of Title 18 of the U.S. Code makes it a criminal offense to make willful, false statements or misrepresentations of any material fact involving the use of or obtaining federal funds.

OWNERS NOTICE NO. 1

Section 214 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1980, as amended, prohibits the Secretary of HUD from making financial assistance available to persons other than U.S. citizens or nationals, or certain categories of eligible noncitizens, in the following HUD programs:

- a. Section 8 Housing Assistance Payments programs;
- b. Section 236 of the National Housing Act including Rental Assistance Payment (RAP);
and
- c. Section 101/Rent Supplement Program.

You have applied, or are applying for, assistance under one of these programs; therefore, you are required to declare U.S. Citizenship or submit evidence of eligible immigration status for each of your family members for whom you are seeking housing assistance. You must do the following:

1. Complete a Family Summary Sheet, using the attached blank format (identified as Exhibit 3-4) to list all family members who will reside in the assisted unit.
2. Each family member (including you) listed on the Family Summary Sheet must complete a Declaration (see Exhibit 3- 5). If there are 10 people listed on the Family Summary Sheet, you should have 10 completed copies of the Declaration. The Declaration has easy-to-follow instructions and explains what, if any other forms and/or evidence must be submitted with each Declaration.
3. Submit the Family Summary Sheet, the Declarations, and any other forms and/or evidence to the name and address listed below:

Oyster Bay Urban Renewal, Inc.

50 Beers Street
Keyport, NJ 07735
Main Office
Attn: Leanne Rowley

This Section 214 review will be completed in conjunction with the verification of other aspects of eligibility for assistance. If you have any questions or difficulty in completing the attached items or determining the type of documentation required, please contact Leanne Rowley at 732-264-2711. She will be happy to assist you. Also, if you are unable to provide the required documentation when returning your completed application, you should immediately contact this office and request an extension, using the block provided on the Declaration Format. Failure to provide this information or establish eligible status may result in your not being considered for housing assistance.

If this Section 214 review results in a determination of ineligibility, you will have an opportunity to appeal the decision. Also, if the final determination concludes that only certain members of your family are eligible for assistance, your family may be eligible for proration of assistance. That means that when assistance is available, a reduced amount may be provided for your family based on the number of members who are eligible.

If assistance becomes available and the other aspects of your eligibility review show that you are eligible for housing assistance, that assistance may be provided to you if at least one member of your household has submitted the required documentation. Following verification of the documentation submitted by all family members, assistance may be adjusted depending on the immigration status verified. You will be contacted as soon as we have further information regarding your eligibility for assistance.

Please include only members of your household who intend to move in

New Jersey's Fair Chance in Housing Act Model Disclosure Statement

New Jersey's Fair Chance in Housing Act, N.J.S.A. 46:8-52 to 64 (FCHA), limits a housing provider's ability to consider a person's criminal history in deciding whether to extend an offer or whether to rent a home after extending an offer.

Before making a conditional offer of housing, Oyster Bay Urban Renewal may consider only whether an applicant has a conviction for the manufacture or production of methamphetamine on the premises of federally assisted housing, or whether an applicant has a lifetime registration requirement under a State sex offender registration program. Oyster Bay Urban Renewal will not consider, or request from an applicant or any other person or entity, any other information about an applicant's criminal history as part of the application process until and unless a conditional offer of housing has been made.

Specifically, if Oyster Bay Urban Renewal receives a criminal history inquiry conducted by a vendor or outside person or entity that is conducted in violation of the FCHA in that it reveals a record that is not permitted to be considered under the FCHA, Oyster Bay Urban Renewal must show that it did not rely on that information in making a determination about your tenancy.

If you are subjected to the withdrawal of a conditional offer of housing due to criminal history, you have the right to request and receive the materials relied upon by Oyster Bay Urban Renewal in making this determination. You have the right to dispute, within thirty (30) days of receiving a withdrawal of conditional offer, the relevance and accuracy of any criminal record, and to offer evidence of any mitigating facts or circumstances, including but not limited to your rehabilitation and good conduct since the criminal offense. FACT SHEET

For HUD ASSISTED RESIDENTS

Project-Based Section 8

“HOW YOUR RENT IS DETERMINED”

Office of Housing

September 2010

This Fact Sheet is a general guide to inform the Owner/Management Agents (OA) and HUD-assisted residents of the responsibilities and rights regarding income disclosure and verification.

Why Determining Income and Rent Correctly is Important

Department of Housing and Urban Development studies show that many resident families pay incorrect rent. The main causes of this problem are:

- Under-reporting of income by resident families, and
- OAs not granting exclusions and deductions to which resident families are entitled.

OAs and residents all have a responsibility in ensuring that the correct rent is paid.

OAs' Responsibilities:

- Obtain accurate income information
- Verify resident income
- Ensure residents receive the exclusions and deductions to which they are entitled
- Accurately calculate Tenant Rent
- Provide tenants a copy of lease agreement and income and rent determinations Recalculate rent when changes in family composition are reported
- Recalculate rent when resident income decreases
- Recalculate rent when resident income increases by $200 or more per month
- Recalculate rent every 90 days when resident claims minimum rent hardship exemption
- Provide information on OA policies upon request
- Notify residents of any changes in requirements or practices for reporting income or determining rent

Residents' Responsibilities:

- Provide accurate family composition information
- Report all income
- Keep copies of papers, forms, and receipts which document income and expenses
- Report changes in family composition and income occurring between annual recertifications
- Sign consent forms for income verification
- Follow lease requirements and house rules

Income Determinations

A family's anticipated gross income determines not only eligibility for assistance, but also determines the rent a family will pay and the subsidy required. The anticipated income, subject to exclusions and deductions the family will receive during the next twelve (12) months, is used to determine the family's rent.

What is Annual Income?

Gross Income – Income Exclusions = Annual Income

What is Adjusted Income?

Annual Income – Deductions = Adjusted Income

Determining Tenant Rent

Project-Based Section 8 Rent Formula:

The rent a family will pay is the highest of the following amounts:

- 30% of the family's monthly adjusted income
 - 10% of the family's monthly income
 - Welfare rent or welfare payment from agency to assist family in paying housing costs.
- OR
- $25.00 Minimum Rent

Income and Assets

HUD assisted residents are required to report all income from all sources to the Owner or Agent (OA).

Exclusions to income and deductions are part of the tenant rent process.

When determining the amount of income from assets to be included in annual income, the actual income derived from the assets is included except when the cash value of all of the assets is in excess of $5,000, then the amount included in annual income is the higher of 2% of the total assets or the actual income derived from the assets.
